

Lift Your Head

Mr Hudson

Answer every question with a "Yes"
Answer every problem with a smile
Keep opening doors, keep pulling those strings
But the midnight hour is mine
The midnight hour is mine Please lift your head from your hands
Tomorrow is another day
Well think about it then I say And there's no weight too great
There's no distance too far
Keep flying the flag and keep banging the drum
Cause the midnight hour is mine
The midnight hour is mine Please lift your head from your hands
Tomorrow is another day
Well think about it then I say Oh, what can I do to save the day?
If only it were as easy as a D-V-D and a takeaway Oh, what can I do, what can I do?
What can I do, what can I do? I say, please lift your head from your hands
Oh, please lift your head from your hands
Tomorrow is another day
You can think about it then I say
Please lift your head from your hands
Tomorrow is another day
Let's think about it then I say
