

Butterflies

Rissi Palmer

Why settle when it comes to love
You can't make more than what's barely enough
And why did I cheat myself
By lyin' to my heart that there's no one else
I guess it was still learnin' its okay to want the best
To hold out for perfection and damn the rest

I want fireworks
Like the 4th of July
And love that's true blue
Like a clear summer sky
I want passion so strong
That it makes me wanna cry
I want nothing short of
Butterflies

Yeah butterflies
I'm sorry it took me so long
To figure out I'm worth it
And true love's worth waitin' on
Forgive me, you're the only one who can Cause you're the only heart,
The only heart I'll ever have
And I don't wanna break you
Or leave you on my sleeve
I just want to save you
Cause I want what you need

I want fireworks
Like the 4th of July
And love that's true blue
Like a clear summer sky
I want passion so strong
That it makes me wanna cry
I want nothing short of
Butterflies

I wanna feel the lightness of my soul
Ill be half until im whole
And when it's really love I'll know

Oh yeah

I donâ€™t wanna break you
Or leave you on my sleeve
I just wanna save you
Cause I want what you need

I want fireworks
Like the 4th of July
And love thatâ€™s true blue
Like a clear summer sky
Butterflies

Yeah, butterflies

Oo

I want fireworks
Like the 4th of July
I want true blue
