Broken

Bruce Dickinson

I will not be pushed
I will not be stamped, defiled
I will not be crushed
I am not your only childI am not a freak
Object of your own desire
I am not ashamed
I am not your alibiI stand alone but I can see
You won't bring me down
For all this pain and misery
I'm not brokenCrushedCrushedI am not a pawn
This is not a game of chess
I am not a pin
Stuck into your shiny vestI am not a slave
I will do what I do best
Walkin' out on you
Take my life, leave the restI stand alone but I can see
You won't bring me down
For all this pain and misery
I'm not brokenAll the hatred, can't you see
You won't bring me down?
All the lights have set me free
I'm not brokenI stand alone but I can see
You won't bring me down
For all this pain and misery
I'm not brokenAll the hatred, can't you see
You won't bring me down?
All the lights have set me free
I'm not brokenI'm not broken
I'm not broken
I'm not broken
