

Lost Angel

Frank Ocean

As it was before shall it ever, ever be
Hear it on the crying wind, hear it weeping on the sea
Through the winter valley wild and through the darkest night
Here comes the evil news of the coming fight, yeah
So love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release, yeah yeah yeah
Love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release
Come on down, Lost Angel, find us now
From the clouds above right down to the ground
Lost Angel, come on down
Stardust, yeah yeah, we are
And the willow is pushed to bend
Yeah, too much, too much, too much of man
And stardust we will be again
Ho love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release, yeah yeah yeah
Love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release
Well, come on down, Lost Angel, find us now
From the clouds above right down to the ground
Come on, come on down, Lost Angel, find us now
From the clouds above right down to the ground

Lost Angel

Now

Get it now

Get it now

Ho, let me know

Let me know

Let me know, yeah

Oh

Oo angel

Come on down

Love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release, yeah yeah yeah
Love, bring your birds, bring your feathers of peace
All through the storm let the tides release
Well, come on down, Lost Angel, find us now

From the clouds above right down to the ground
Come on, come on down, Lost Angel, find us now
From the clouds above right down to the ground
Lost Angel, come on down
Yeah
