

You Can't Lose A Broken Heart (09-30-49)

Billie Holiday

Don't lose your head
Then lose your guy
You can't lose a broken heartIf you ever break up
Then try to make up
It's tough to make a brand new startTake a walk
Think it over
While strolling neath the moon
Don't say things in December
You'll regret in JuneWare your remarks
Before you speak
Or you may be sorry soon
Don't be erratic
Be diplomatic
To keep your heart's in tuneCruel harsh words
Often spoken
Will upset your apple cart
So don't lose your head
Then lose your guy
'Cause, you can't lose a broken heartDon't lose your head
Then lose your girl
You can't lose a broken heartIf you ever break up
Then try to make up
It's tough to make a brand new startTake a walk
And think it over
While strolling neath the moon
Don't say things in December
Baby you'll regret in JuneWare your remarks
Before you speak
Or you may be sorry soon, baby
Don't be erratic
Be diplomatic
To keep your heart's in tuneCruel harsh words
Often spoken
Will upset your apple cart, baby
So don't lose your head
Then lose your girl
'Cause, you can't lose a broken heartNo, you can't, can't lose a broken heart
