

All That I Need

Venture

I wish I never knew your name, but I'm a little late on asking.
The only thing that's left for me, is to make life comfortable.
It makes me think your all the same,
its make the hurt seem everlasting
But honestly, from what I've seen
We're not in a perfect world

I'm through and Iâ€™m not asking,
for you to be there

Where will you go when you find yourself outside,
I'm closing the door,
And setting you free
Where will you go, when you finally got it right, I'm closing the door, it's
All that I need

All that I need

When you think you've had enough, but you couldn't find a reason
Nothing's fair and the things in life seem unpredictable
Well maybe you should make the change,
Before you let the hate erase you
But honestly, from what I've seen
We're not in a perfect world

I'm through and Iâ€™m not asking,
for you to be there

Where will you go when you find yourself outside,
I'm closing the door,
And setting you free
Where will you go, when you finally got it right,
I'm closing the door, it's
All that I need
Itâ€™s all that I need

Where will you go when you find yourself outside, outside, outside
Is it cold out there???

But honestly, from what I've seen
We're not in a perfect world

I'm through and i'm not asking,
for you to be there

Where will you go when you find yourself outside,
I'm closing the door, it's
All that I need

Where will you go, when you finally got it right,
I'm closing the door, it's
All that I need

All that I need(repeat)
But maybe that's all that I need.
