

Hey Mr. Grey

Bob Mould

Hey Mr. Grey
That's what the children say
Life used to be so hard
Well get off my yard

They're so young
They're so dumb
They don't understand
Kids don't follow
Kids don't lead
Kids go hand in hand

Hey Mr. Blue
You broken hearted fool
And you wonder why
The ones you loved would lie

Hey Mr. Green
Your grace is rarely seen
So filled with rage
And then you disengage

You get so up
Get so down
Get mixed up inside
Kiss of death
Kiss of love
Kiss it all goodbye

Hey Mr. White
It's time to stop the fight
The world has changed
While you turned out the lights

But old Mr. Grey
Will slowly fade away
Old Mr. Grey
Hey Mr. Grey

Find a life that's right for you now

Find a life that's right for you now
Find a life that's right for you now
Find a life that's right for you now
