Lemon Drop

2 Skinnee J's

You tell me hey, big Daddy, you're looking like a million
Flash a billion dollar smile, then change like a chameleon
You talk dirty to make me come clean
Now I get the message like an answering machineYou don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me down
You don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me downYou're my lemon drop
Sweet and sour lollipop
Seal my fate with puckered lips
I return the kisses you giveYou look like candy to a baby
Like you've got the magic touch
But you're burning on my tongue and you're stinging in my cutsAs you put on your mask for the masquerade
So you can break all the rules when the game is played
You say, take it easy while I'm working hard
But you're behind the wheel and I'm pushing the carYou don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me down
You don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me downYou're my lemon drop
Sweet and sour lollipop
Seal my fate with puckered lips
I return the kissesYou're my lemon drop
Sweet and sour lollipop
Seal my fate with puckered lips
I return the kisses you giveI don't wanna know
I don't wanna see
I don't wanna think
But it's obvious to me, oh yeahYou don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me down
You don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me downYou don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me down
You don't want me, you just want me around
Picking you up, while you're bringing me downYeah, you're my lemon drop
Sour kisses, sugar lollipop
Yeah, you're my lemon drop
Sour kisses, sugar lollipopYeah, you're my lemon drop
Sour kisses, sugar lollipop
Yeah, you're my lemon drop
