

Lost Tree

Versaemerge

 Their arms, they reach
They branch like they're trying to catch me
 They stand so tirelessly
Outgrown, the sides of roads
 Are mixed in gold
 The summer has me
 The summer has me sold
I see the hints, just picture it
 Craving to witness
But we blinked and missed it
 Beg to the sky
Long days and all nights
 Beg to the sky
Long days and all nights
Here we are, rooted deep
Looking up, so sun sweet
Until the fall, we lose it all
 Here we are
Thin and bare, stuck in a stiff stare
I wait up in the air that makes it all fair
We stop and grow and stop and grow
We co exist, flourished and sun kissed
 Anything you'd like
 Your back road eyes
 They're getting dry
 And unnatural smile
You're lost in this place
 I see it in your face
 Lost in this place
 I see it in your face
Here we are, rooted deep
Looking up, so sun sweet

Until the fall, we lose it all
 Here we are
 Yeah, whoa
There's a vulture on my shoulder
 The time I'm wasting Can't say where I've been

Hey, mind reader
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
(You'll never know)
Stranger, I know so well
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
B-b-blame it on the television
You make your own love
I-I-I'm pulling, I'm pushing
I'm putting it out of my mind
We aim our arrows high
Oh dear, I've worked with father sky
So why don't we just go?
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
(So why don't we just go?)
Don't let me get away
I'm lost in it
Don't let me get away
Don't let me get away
I'm lost in it, so lost in it
