The Dirty Guv'nahs

I've been running from my demons since the day that I was born
I've been losing too much sleep just like a kid
I've been hiding from the memories of the things that I once did
But I don't want to be defined by them no more All I get is this one little life you see
What I want is the freedom to just be me
There's no place in this world I would rather be
Than here in your arms All of my good friends
Let's get together
I still believe it
We're chasing forever
This is the season
I need you around
Nobody's leaving
Til the sun's coming out
Growing up comes quickly and if you blink your eyes you'll miss
The beauty of the whole world sitting right beneath your hips
Make some plans but baby I hope you will not forget
The greatest things don't come without the risk
