

Girl From A Pawnshop

The Black Crowes

With a pawnshop eyes and a second hand frown she sat silent at the table Her boots were brown, should she leave town
To play the role of lover ex-patriot
A nod to the waiter, always her flirty behavior,
You know she always gets one on the house
She pulls out a letter from a bag Under her sweater and before she reads she straightens her blouse There's a passion in being alone A grace in a loveless time There's no new cross, there's no new sign only the sun and the changing tide And out of respect, well really must confess I never lost your number I never lost your address
And if we remain friends at best Sometime later no, no not yet we'll smile and remember it like this She put back the letter, one tear falls like a feather and disappears on this bar room floor
The gratuity included, you know the letter concluded

Songwriters

ROBINSON, CHRISTOPHER MARK/ROBINSON, RICH S. Published by Lyrics © Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>