

Boy at a Bus Stop

The Bicycle Thief

Hope you don't mind
If I just sit here a while
Well, I've been off the beaten track
For a long, long timeDon't know if I was misled
And just got lost
But I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be okay again, no how'Cause everything is just closing in
Well, I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friendMy mom thinks I need religion
I think I need a shower and something to eat
Can I bum another cigarette?
And thanks for the listening to meYou know I don't like to steal
But I've got needs
And I know nothing's ever
Never gonna be okay again, no how'Cause everything is just closing in
I don't know that I have one single friend
Not one single friendNot one single friend
Not one single friend
