

Ghost

Hollywood Undead

I am witness to all the sickness
Are all you guilty? If I am guilty then I know that
We are all alone, lay low where the plate shows
Face the saint less so i'll say this, you are never Going home I am wicked they won't forget me I know
I'm empty and they sent three yeah the sent three
Fire!Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light)
Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light)Now father I'm right here lift that nightmare
On the right side of the bed side there's a good book
It'll tell you what you need to know the pages
Were all wasted and to faded and advating I know actually
Where I've gone hollow voice inside your soul
Is everything you'll ever know welcome to the
Fire!Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light)
Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light)All I want to be is the ghost inside a dream that will Never let you be am I wrong whisper back to me about
Your life of tragedy but the memories you need there
All goneThere'll all gone
There'll all gone

There'll all gone
There'll all gone Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light)
Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
(Try to find the light) Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my Here's to the Ghost so afraid of the day
If you let go will you promise that you'll
Stay in my shadow, in my shadow, in my shadow
In my
