

Change Lanes

Kevin Gates

[Intro]

Been through a lot of pain in my life, and I pray the lord take it all away
I got family going through life never see the sunshine again and pray it all away We all the way! [Hook]

Diamond teeth when I bless the game

I was bein' quiet but got a lot to say

Unique chains on a freeway, don't need reigns, Cocaine great

Made a statement, I was grinding on 'em, wanna replay

Rolex no diamonds in it, twist movin' no time ticking'

Introverted, not trying' to kick it, private life, please mind your business

Introverted, these days

Introverted, these days

Plain Jane, I done changed lanes, Plain Jane I done changed lanes

Plain Jane, I done changed lanes, Plain Jane I done changed lanes

[Verse 1]

[?], I ain't miss a beat, praise to Allah, made it out the clink

Alhamdulillah, praise be to God

Big booty freak, givin' her massage

Lookin' in the mirror, looking' at a star

She get on her knees knees, look up at a star

Remember being broke, wishin' on a star

I remember no one giving us a star

Foreign car, push button, auto start

Rest and relaxation, not involved

Goin' hard Rolls Royce, R&R

Wonder why these niggas hate me

Probably 'cause they know they ain't me

I ain't never been a gang member, Illinois labeled me a gang chief

[?] Judge bein' racist, [?] wrongful conviction

[?] lied to me, gave him a quarter ticket

Laying in my cell, looking at the ceiling, I'ma love the vision and all the killers throwing shit and pissing [?]

[Hook]

Diamond teeth when I bless the game

I was bein' quiet but got a lot to say

Unique chains on a freeway, don't need reigns, Cocaine great
