

I Still Love You

Shirley Murdock

Sitting here
With pen and paper in my hand
And I try to write the words
But will you understand? Wanted to call you on the telephone
But I thought it would be wrong
I had to tell you just how I felt
So I wrote this little song I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I love you (Love you)
Love you
I do Since you been gone
There hasn't been anyone
To take your place
You brought joy to my heart
And a smile upon my face All that's left, is the memory of you
The love that we shared
And the things we used to do But I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I love you (Love you)
Love you
I do I can't seem to lose this hold over me
Now you know what I'm talkin bout
And what is the remedy
We went our separate ways
Leading different lives
There's me myself and I
There's you and your new wife Ohhhh I love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do

I love you (Love you)
Love you
I doOoooh
I'm not trying to interfere or cause you any strain
Cause I know what I like
And I like what I love
But I know that things have changed
Have changedI still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I still love you (I still love ya)
I really do
I love ya baby (I still love ya)
I really do
I, I, I, I, I, I, I, I love you baby
I really do
I really do
I really really love ya, love ya
I really do
L-O-V-E you
I really do
Can't get you off my mind
I think about you all the time
Yes I do
I really do
