You Look So Good To Me

Billy Joel

Ah, you look so good to me
With my eyes open wide, I can see
Ah, you feel so good to me
And it's so good when you're here 'cause I'm free

Feelin' the glory from that smile upon your face
It's liftin' me high above my ordinary place
And I am so happy when I'm in your warm embrace

Ah, you look so good to me
With my eyes open wide, I can see
Ah, you feel so good to me
And who knows what your next move will be?

Ah, you look so good to me
With my eyes open wide, I can see
Ah, you feel so good to me
And it's so good when you're here 'cause I'm free
