

Millionaire's Dream (Album Version)

John Wesley Harding

I'm a quiet guy, lead a quiet life
Got a quiet way and a quiet wife
I don't say too much, if there's nothing to say
I just watch the silence blow my day away
Put the tv on, but there's nothing to see
Just people talking endlessly
About things to buy, more shows to see
Might mean something to someone, means nothing to me
And when I go to bed, I sing to her
Then I go to sleep, and dream of dreaming
Walk down the street, wish I'd stayed in Shoulda taken the car out for a spin
People ask for money, say I'm sorry for you
I'm in debt for life, I should be begging too
Had a dream that I was dreaming
Woke up with a start
A millionaire with a broken heart
Not me
So I don't want nothing, and I don't need much
'cos I'm a millionaire with a midas touch
The bank, God and tomorrow lay seige my home
And I wish they'd just leave us alone
And when I go to bed....
