Nobody Else

One Voice

i dont want nobody else cause its so lonely without you i wont waste your time anymore im ready to love only you
im only loving you more your constantly, on my mind constantly, all the time im tottally, honestly, truely in love with youi made a big mistake when i was untrue and now im sittin all alone wondering what am i gona do see i was nieve and know i was a fool for taking you, for granted so please forgive me cause now im missing youi dont want nobody else
im tottally, honestly, truely in love with youi know what i feel,is mutual so please tell me why, you let a good grl go(why me baby) please close your eyes and see, that what we had was so so for real(so so real) so please come back

im tottally, honestly, truely in love with youbaby baby you may not believe when i say my feelings havent changed for you but i dont believe you, lost what you had for me see it may be my fault but, dont act that way, dont act that way cause deep within you and i, you and i know in our hearts we know we were meant to be
