

Rather Be On My Own

Kingdom Come

We telling lies
Making us cry!
I have tried to find out why
We've got to win
We can't give in
I'm about to lose my mind
I wish I knew, just what to do
But until then I much
Rather be on my own
How long I don't know
Letting time go by
Things we have said
We do regret
We should all be thinking twice
Before we talk
Before we walk
Into someone else's life
Carry our sound, gentle as clouds
But until then I much
Rather be on my own
How long I don't know
Letting time go by
Heaven's starting to fade
Soon it may be too late
Can we change in time
