

King of the World

Porcelain and The Tramps

My pain filled drama queen
Is always creeping at your bed
Get ready to buy you out
'Cause we all know
What goes around comes around
You should've known what I was all about
Do not test me 'Cause I'm the fucking king of the world
Get on your knees
I'm the fucking king of the world
Do as I please So get up and get out and I'll show you
What it means for me to control you
'Cause I'm the fucking king of the world Keep your head down
Until I tell you to speak
You're not giving me the run around
When you fall back, unto my coffin
No you should've stayed out of my way
Do not test me 'Cause I'm the fucking king of the world
Get on your knees
I'm the fucking king of the world
Do as I please So get up and get out and I'll show you
What it means for me to control you
'Cause I'm the fucking king of the world Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me [Scream] Get on you knees
'Cause I'm the fucking king of the world
Do as I please
So get up and get out and I'll show you
What it means for me to control you 'Cause I'm the fucking king, fucking king of the world
Do as I please
I'm the fucking king, fucking king of the world
Get on you knees I'm the fucking king, the fucking king of the world, yeah
(Fucking king of the world) Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me

Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
Bow to me
Bow to me at my feet you'll bow to me
