

Hurricane

Room 94

You started a war, I couldn't ignore
What are we even fighting for!
Now it's too late you
You dug your own grave.
It's not love, it's closer to hate.
And I feel like I'm a ghost
When I'm with you nobody knows
We were just kids, so lost and confused
We were just kids, so broken and used. Crash down like a tidal wave,
Break me like an earthquake
Burn me down in flames.
Hit me like a hurricane watch me explode
Let me go!
Come on break my heart, I never loved you anyway. You tell me your bored, we've been here before
And I can't teak this anymore.
Now it's too late, I'm breaking the stains
I won't stay I'm not gonna wait
And I feel like a ghost
When I'm with you nobody knows.
We were just kids, so lost and confused
We were just kids, so broken and used.
Tonight I'm paying my sins
Tonight I'm praying for a miracle!
