Empty Spaces

Sr-71

I'm not afraid to go backwards, fix what we broke
My gaze falls behind, you make desire seem so easy
I hold off sleep, it's so silent without you here
Don't give up now, it would all be for nothing
'Coz, I believe in second chances
I believe the years forget
So let me fill these empty spaces
Better late than never, stay forever
Let me fill this empty space
'Coz, there's always room for one more mistake
Can you feel that?
I think we're moving in the right direction
I was someone else then
I'd take it back if you would let me
'Coz, I believe in second chances
I believe the years forget
So let me fill these empty spaces
Better late than never, stay forever
Let me fill this empty space
'Coz, there's always room for one more mistake
We were never this close when we were young
Every night I whisper your name at the top of my lungs, yeah
I'm not afraid
I'm not afraid
Let me fill these empty spaces
Better late than never, stay forever
Let me fill this empty space
'Coz, there's always room for one more mistake
Better late than never, stay forever, yeah
'Coz, there's always room for one more mistake
Always room for one more mistake
Always room for one more mistake
I'm not afraid
