Someone You Use

Candi Staton

Just a shoulder to cry on
That's all I've been to you
Just someone to rely on
When your world is empty and blueI'm just someone you call dear
Anytime you choose
I'm someone you run to Someone you useI'm just someone to talk to
And that's all I'll ever be
Just a clown you can laugh with Someone to treat as you needI'm just a fool you can love on
Any time you choose
I'm just someone you run to
Someone you useI'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use
Don't you know when you need me
My little heart just can't refuseI'm just someone who loves you, baby
I can't win and I can't lose
I'm just someone you run to
I'm just someone you use
