One Fine Thing

Harry Connick, Jr.

When I?m walkin? I see you
And I?m wonderin what it must be like to be you
You?re a sunrise, you?re heaven
You?re the reason that God rested on day seven

You?re one fine fine thing

When I?m dreamin? I love you
And I know that there is just one version of you
Can I have you? I need you
If you tell me where you wanna go I?ll lead you

You?re one fine fine thing

I want you now in a really bad way
So what do I have to do?
I could somehow have a real good day
It all depends on you

Well I?ve flirted? I?ve dated
And I?m thinkin the single ring is overrated
So I?ll loiter and linger
And I?ll try to get a ring around your finger

You?re one fine fine thing
You?re one fine fine thing
You?re one fine fine thing
