Kursk

Tommy Cox

The Kursk is on the bottom of the Barents Sea.
One hundred eighteen sailors for all eternity.
Submarine disaster. Russian tragedy.
The Kursk is on the bottom of the Barents Sea.

On August 10 in Y2K the exercise did go.
A missile fired at the target through the sleet and snow.
K-141, the mighty one, destroyed the target foe.
With much success, they did their best.
They put on quite a show.

On August 12, torpedo launch, Saint Elmo did arrive.
Then it was told all hands were lost.
No one did survive.
K-219 Komsomolets and K-8 all alive,
Join Thresher and the Scorpion and Kursk on her last dive.

Crewmen of the mighty Kursk and sailors everywhere
All submariners of the world join as one in prayer.
We're brothers of the dolphin.
You know we really care.
It could be you, it could be me, beneath the waves out there.

The Kursk is on the bottom of the Barents Sea.
One hundred eighteen sailors for all eternity.
Submarine disaster. Russian tragedy.
The Kursk is on the bottom of the Barents Sea.
