

Through the Dark

RoadLash

As I walk away, I look over my shoulder
To see what I'm leaving behind
Pieces of puzzles and wishes on eyelashes fail
Ohh, how do I show all the love
    Inside my heart?
    Well, this is all new
And I'm feeling my way through the dark
And I used to talk with honest conviction
    Of how I predicted my word
    I'm gonna leave it to star gazers
    Tell me what your telescope says
    Ohh, what is in store for me now?
    It's coming apart
    I know that it's true
'Cause I'm feeling my way through the dark
    Try to find a light on somewhere
    Try to find a light on somewhere
I'm finding I'm falling in love with the dark, oh yeah
    Ohh oh, what do I know?
    I don't care where I start
    For my troubles are few
As I'm feeling my way through the dark
    Through the dark
I'm feeling my way through the dark
