Dragpipe

I wanna light you
I wanna taste just what you got
I wanna feel you
I wanna be everything you're notAnd in this reason
There are things I'll never know
And when I'm bleeding
I wanna put what I got in youI wanna feel you
Don't wanna heal you
Just wanna steal you
For one day, for one dayDon't wanna drive you
I wanna go every place you got
Don't wanna try you
I wanna live every plan you plotAnd in this moment
There are things I'll never know
And when I'm bleeding
I wanna put what I got in youI wanna feel you
Don't wanna heal you
Just wanna steal you
For one day, for one dayEvery time I look into your eyes
I see a different girl
Every time I look into your eyes
I see a different worldI wanna feel you
Don't wanna heal you
Just wanna steal you
For one day, for some day
I'll keep you for some day
