

Voyeur (feat. Nicholas Braun)

Phantoms

She wears a polka-dotted dress
And little diamonds in her ear, oooh
She wears the pearls, the pearls, the pearls around her neck
I see a slice of her brassiere
She dances like she doesn't care
But she's entirely aware, oooh
I'm locked in, I'm stoppin', I can't stop watchin'
And I move over there
And right about the time you started to stare You and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights Yeah, you and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights Our faces linger close
I can feel your breath
Your shaking fingers hold
So tight onto my wrist
The room is quiet to us now
But the music's loud, oooh
And as we dance entranced
I take your hands and move my lips to your mouth, yeah
And right about the time you started to stare You and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights Yeah, you and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights Tonight You and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights Yeah, you and me
We've only got tonight, we've only got tonight
so leave us be
We're lost in the lights, we're lost in the lights
