The Bully

Sia

How you been feeling
It's not about marbles, sweets or glue
How you been healing
Now that we cannot win or lose
So how you been keeping
It doesn't matter whose dads richest now
And how you been sleeping
From the top bunks further to fall down
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
What you been doing
Still make the world a better place
Never stopped ruing
Making those tears fall down your face
Making you suffer
Wondering how you got your scars

And only in hindsight
I wish I had taken you in my arms
Taken you in my arms
Taken you in my arms
Taken you in my arms
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
You turned that around on me
(Forgiving the bully)
You turned that around on me
(Forgiving the bully)
You turned that around on me
(Forgiving the bully)
You turned that around on me
(Forgiving the bully)
