May 26

Saxon Shore

may 26 is a day not to be missed no more lies just the big fat dis our shit is history no more misery or sick trickery
or the current bribery
for both of us are free
the concrete fleas
and the electric trees
i'll wait until midnight
at which time you will call
to tell me the virdict
that you don't care at all
it's been weeks since i've seen you
months since i was nice
i never brought you flowers
you never came twice
just midnight meetings
in random motels
illicit dealings
with nothing to sell
we'd talk alot
often 'till dawn
with interest in all said and all the new songs
then we'd go there
it was often great
to that place beyond a whole other state
then fall asleep
carefully knowing
it was all true

the electric trees
blue latex bess
cardiology
no mystery, like dysentery free
or atleast we'll see
