

My My

Menomena

What if all my enemies were dead
And I could forget everything they said
Could I be then who I really am? What if I sold everything I own
And ran away from everyone I know
Could I make another place my home? If I let go all of my ghosts
Who would I dump over the months? What if everyone is right?
Should've taken their advice
But I can't change my mind If I let go all of my ghosts
Who would I dump over the months? (What if everybody else is right)
(Should've taken more of their advice)

Songwriters

Brent Knopf, Daniel Frederic Seim, Justin Andrew Harris
Published by Lyrics © Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>