Tin Star Man

Thunderstone

Land of the free, home of the brave
A history of heroes in my name
One truth under God
I feel I am stranded
In a world covered in darkA shield against evil, I light the spark
I can feel it in my blood
I carry on my sacred ride
Across the seas and the great divideI will save you, even if you don't want me to My electric eye will always find you
I'm the one, me, myself and I
Feel the thunder when I light up the skyNo one can stop me now
It's already begun
I'm the Tin Star ManIt's a thin line between good and bad
But knowing I'm right keeps me on the track
Righteous and cleanI have the power, I have the force
To bring down my foes and to lead my cause
The light shines on me
