Shine My Shoes

Robbie Williams

Another dawn, another day, another dollar to be made.
I got a pocket in my soul, where a little rock a little roll assimilate
And I don't care what you think you know
'bout who I am and how it goes
I made it easy to be me so yeah, It's easy to be me
And it's why I say
(Chorus)
I know you can't stand me cause i make you so angry more and more each day
hey hey hey
The way you don't love me kind of makes you look ugly and the words you say
hey hey hey
Come up and see me, i kind of like the abuse
hey hey hey
There's no room in my bed
But while you're here just bow your head and you can shine my shoes
Shine my shoes
Get outta my lane boy, you're not in my league
Some are born to thrive and some to underachieve
Here's something that'll make you sick
I'm as happy as a pig in Sh--
I've been amused, I've been about, I've been amazed, I've been betrayed
That's why I say
(Chorus)
hey hey hey
hey hey hey
Come up and see me, oh oh oh, if you can take the abuse
hey hey hey
There's no room in my bed
But while you're here just lend a hand and you can shine my shoes
Shine my shoes
Kneel down boy
(Chorus)
It's why you can't stand me, you make me so angry more and more each day
hey hey hey
The way you don't love me kind of makes you look ugly every the words you say
hey hey hey
Come up and see me, oh oh oh, I kind of like the abuse

hey hey hey
There's no room in my bed
But while you're here then bow your head and you can shine my shoes
Shine my shoes
Shine my shoes
Until I see my face
