Godless

Taking Dawn

I am not a man of superstition but your body's my religion
Any cost your world to worship as I press my palms to her lips
And I say, come...with meAs we plummet through the heavens
From the summit of our endless ecstasy
On your knees pray to me
Quiver like the thunder trembling
Taste my passion and surrender unto me
My god... what have I done?What am I left with as I watch you go?
Without a prayer you leave me here so godless
Preach to me heresy
Oh and I'm electric, baby now that you're gone
Without a prayer do you feel so godless?
Preach to me heresyWhen all I need is to be needed
All you make me feel is needy
"I need some space," need I go on?
I'd kill to be your hero
But I'll die before I make myself your martyr
Here's your part now push me harderWhat am I left with as I watch you go?
Without a prayer you leave me here so godless
Preach to me heresy
Oh and I'm electric, baby now that you're gone
Without a prayer do you feel so godless?
Preach to me heresyStill you keep on killing me the same
A thorn by any other nameBut we was always me and never really you and I
So I can see how easily you can let us die
And as you go you know I know you better than yourself
Through all the years and twice the tears
I'm just your empty shelfWhat am I left with as I watch you go?
Without a prayer you leave me here so godless
Preach to me heresy
Oh and I'm electric, baby now that you're gone
Without a prayer do you feel so godless?
Preach to me heresyGodless just like me.
