Another World

Brian May

In another world
Under another sky
I see another story waiting
To be toldAnd another you, wakes up
With another me
For that's the way we've come to be
In another worldIn a different place
Way 'cross time and space
The door is open wide
Drawn to a different light
Maybe we'll step insideIn another world
We can show we care
You can be sure I'm waiting there
In another worldWhen the dice were cast
They laid a crazy path we follow to our graves
But I know in different world
We journey a different waySo we live but life
Isn't what it seems
We're only living in our dreams
In another worldYou can believe I'll meet you here
In another world
