

Fine Print (Alex Sayz Remix (Radio Edit))

Nadia Ali

I've been holding back x4[Verse 1:]

You're like a moving star

I can't get close enough to you

Been months I got your call

Our falling out, we slipped right into You were an ace for me

My crazy heart got hold of you

Your hand called every bluff

I had to fold and let it go[Chorus :]

Since I saw you last

I've been holding back

I figured I should

Do just that

I thought I'd crack

But I smiled instead

I'll let you

Read the fine print[Verse 2:]

I walk a line between

The thoughts of now and where I've been

Today the grass is green

I've got it all, so why reminisce? I'm just a mermaid who is

Not content with waveless oceans

Sometimes a gusty wind

Is what I need to feel again[Chorus :]

Since I saw you last

I've been holding back

I figured I should

Do just that

I thought I'd crack

But I smiled instead

I'll let you

Read the fine printSince I saw you last

I've been holding back

I figured I should

Do just that

I thought I'd crack

But I smiled instead

I'll let you

Read the fine print[Bridge :]

Read between the lines

For what got left behind
But I can't say, I'll hold it down
The weight of seeing you nowI've been holding back x4I've been holding back
I thought I'd crack a thought
I've been holding back
I thought I'd crack
But I smiled instead
I'll let you
Read the fine print[Chorus :]
Since I saw you last
I've been holding back
I figured I should
Do just that
I thought I'd crack
But I smiled instead
I'll let you
Read the fine printSince I saw you last
I've been holding back
I figured I should
Do just that
I thought I'd crack
But I smiled instead
I'll let you
Read the fine print
