

We Can't Hide

Donkeyboy

Up and go here we are.
Here a days here but it wont get far.
Nother' day but it's all the same.Up and go, we can't hide.
Nother' day without your smile.
Nother day but it's all the same.Stay with me now, cause maybe.
You'll see what you wanna see.
This time there's nothing left to hide.
And sometimes in life, regret you'll find.
And I'll, wear a little broken heart for you.
Might feel sad, when I see.
How bad people can be.
Ask myself, what went wrong.Stay with me now, cause maybe.
You'll see what you wanna see.
This time there's nothing left to hide.
And sometimes in life, regret you'll find.
And I'll, wear a little broken heart for you.And all the chances that you had.
They have all gone to waste.
Now that you aint' mine, regrets will haunt me down.
Stay with me now, cause maybe.
You'll see what you wanna see.
This time there's nothing left to hide.
And sometimes in life, regret you'll find.
And I'll, wear a little broken heart for you.
