

Love Can Be a Wave

On Thorns I Lay

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

The secret of flame silent I describe
From limitless dimension
And endless horizons, I fly...Travelers all of us to the coast of hope
The lighthouse of life think that rule
The world, but they don'tI cry to the emptiness turning back and fighting
Like animal the pain bloody Sunday we sleep
Lost in space to the dawns grief give me
Another galaxy to learn into a century our passion
Became smoke, seasons of tears I'll not see lost
Memories, live travel
