What Happens In Vegas

Phil Vassar

All the girls at the office win every year
They come back with secrets and cheap souvenirs
They beg her to go, they say you don't know what you're missing
But her boyfriend, Bobby, was a class A jerk
Never let her go nowhere, treated her like dirtBut this time they convinced her
She didn't need permission
But as soon as that plane got up in the air
They all raised their glasses
And they all made her swearWhat happens in Vegas is just between us
Ain't nobody's business what anyone does
You can let down your hair, be as wild as you dare
Go crazy, do something outrageous
But what happens in Vegas stays in VegasThey were all flying high when they got off the plane
Went straight to their rooms and everyone changed
Looked so different from work
Wearing short skirts and flirting with strangers
She felt like Cinderella, she was having a ballMet a doctor from Dallas
They laughed and they talked
Then a voice in her ear whispered, "Bobby ain't here"
And there ain't no ring on your finger
RememberWhat happens in Vegas is just between us
Ain't nobody's business what anyone does
You can let down your hair, be as wild as you dare
Go crazy, do something outrageous
But what happens in Vegas stays in VegasThere was one empty seat
Coming home on that plane
Bobby was waiting at the baggage claim
He said, "Where the hell is she?"
But all they would say is"What happens in Vegas is just between us
Ain't nobody's business what anyone does
You can let down your hair, be as wild as you dare
Go crazy, do something outrageous
But what happens in Vegas stays in Vegas"
