All Else Can Wait

Alice Russell

Oh, oh, oh?

So fair
Feeling?s way off the line
Suffer this together
And it?s way off the line
Struggling together
So much anger so much pain
To realize it?s all in vain

Slowly to learn
All these thoughts, all these things, what they all seem to mean.
Will you always remind me all the places we have seen, so we may return and start again?

So fair,
loving way over time.
We forced the doors wide open,
and there?s nowhere left to hide.
Run the roads together,
not stoping all the way.
The storm is strong,
Oh all else can wait

Oh, oh, oh?
