

All That Sh Is Gone

Carolina Liar

I never got it right,
That's how this breaks down
I never see things through
I always carry the weight for you,
For you
And now I hesitate
With every step I take
I fear my back might break
If I don't leave today
Always trying to please everyone
That I met and I ended up
Losing it all

But, all that sh is gone
La la la la
All that sh is gone
La la la la

I guess I felt abused
Is that something you choose?
In a cheap disguise,
I did everything for you
Always trying to please everyone
That I met and I ended up
Losing it all

But, all that sh is gone
La la la la
All that sh is gone
La la la la

All that sh is gone
La la la la
All that sh is gone
La la la la
La la la la

I never got it right
Always carried the weight for you
