The Living End

The Jesus And Mary Chain

Well now I've seen it all before
Nothing comes new to me anymore
Is this for real? I can't decide
Something is messing with my mind
Well, I guess that now my time is near Displacement conjures up no fear
The end will only linger on
Responsibility has gone
The end of existence is heading my way
I don't think, I can last one more day
Stuck in a place that doesn't wound or mend
Is this what's called the living end?
I'm stuck between the devil and the deep blue sea
The end is here for eternity
The end will only linger on
Responsibility has gone
The end of existence is heading my way
I don't think, I can last one more day
Stuck in a place that doesn't wound or mend
Is this what's called the living end?
Stuck in a place that doesn't wound or mend
Is this what's called the living end?
Stuck in a place that doesn't wound or mend
Is this what's called the living end?
Stuck in a place that doesn't wound or mend
Is this what's called the living end?
