

Triumph of the Will

Devo

It was a thing I had to do
It was a message from below
It was a messy situation
It was desire for a girl I'm not a wanker or a banker
I'm not afraid to take a risk
It is the thing females ask for
When they convey the opposite Before I die
Before I die
Before I die
I'll get another piece of pie
I'll get another piece of pie
I'll get another piece of pie
If I have to lie It was a thing I had to do
It was a message from below
It was a messy situation
It was a triumph of the will Before I die
Before I die
Before I die
I'll get another piece of pie
I'll get another piece of pie
I'll get another piece of pie
If I have to lie When the well cries out for water
It is a need that must be filled
It goes beyond the laws of nature
It takes a triumph of the will
