

Nothing Lasts Forever

The Early November

If this is how the story ends, blackened hearts and bitter friends
Broken bonds and busted ties, we have a love we have tonight
We donâ€™t have to obey the trend, deny our hearts the bitter end
Nothing has to change this time
If we have tonight

Surrender what you have that their after Cause everyday its not enough its a tax to survive the white light
Avoid the right lines
Believe the best viewâ€™s the one everybodyâ€™s after Hold on, its not enough that we believe youâ€™re strong
Hold on, itâ€™s not enough to believe
They say nothing lasts forever, itâ€™s not giving up
I say nothing last forever, but Iâ€™m giving up

If this is how the story ends, blackened hearts and bitter friends
Broken bonds and busted ties, we have a love we have tonight
We donâ€™t have to obey the trend, deny our hearts the bitter end
Nothing has to change this time
If we have tonight

Remember itâ€™s your past that convicts you
So never give â€™em long enough to predict you
Always must grow, try to let go
Never get lost in how everyone sees you
Hold on, itâ€™s not enough that we believe youâ€™re strong
Hold on, itâ€™s not enough to believe

If this is how the story ends, blackened hearts and bitter friends
Broken bonds and busted ties, we have a love we have tonight
We donâ€™t have to obey the trend, deny our hearts the bitter end
Nothing has to change this time
If we have tonight

We say nothing lasts forever
So nothing lasts forever, well give it up
Nothing lasts forever
If this is how it ends than I am better off without it
You donâ€™t fight breaking down, we just let it take control

Let it take control, until it lets you down
So slow
