Life in a Box

Pg.99

Sometimes when I'm alone
I try to remember how I ever got this far
Was it a miracle
Or was it a dream?
Either way it makes me feel...

And I try to imagine what it would be like
If I was still with you
I try to remember those old days
Like it's the end of my life
Like I could die tomorrow

Sometimes when I'm with you
We try to have fun
We always have fun
I remember how it felt
And I want those feelings back
I know they can't be lost forever

Because I try to imagine what it would be like
If I was still with you
I try to remember those old days
Like it's the end of my life
Like I could die tomorrow

Sometimes I wish that you would feel like I do
Sometimes I think that I could never truly love you
Sometimes I want to take you there
Sometimes I hate myself
Way too much to bear

But it's life
It's my life
It's your life
It's our life

If we try we can stop these thoughts
And return this to our
Life in a box...
