

Please Stand Up

British Sea Power

Take me somewhere quiet, please
These motorway exit gates
Are callin' to me dearly and I need a place to go And even numbers on a timetable
Arrivals and departures and those places, names
Never seemed so strange before If there's anyone askin', did you get a rush?
There's no point in askin', it wasn't enough
There's nobody else here, so please stand up If there's anyone askin', did you get a rush?
There's no point in askin', it wasn't enough
There's nobody else here, so please stand up The occultation of a summer sun
Was burnin' holes in everyone
Defenseless, what was left inside could finally escape It seemed as if the streets had melted
It seemed as if the air was scented
I wish all of time could be like this If there's anyone askin', did you get a rush?
There's no point in askin', it wasn't enough
There's nobody else here, so please stand up Oh, oh, oh my love If there's anyone askin', did you get a rush?
There's no point in askin', it wasn't enough
There's nobody else here, so please stand up And then all of a sudden it's all better, better
A little excitement makes us wetter, wetter
Oh, my love again, again, again, again my love
