I Bought You

Tsunami Bomb

I know I have the chance to meet you, but that's a risky move.
I know I might have to surrender my preexisting idea of you.Right now you're a stranger-let's keep it that way.
No harm meant.
Let's keep it that way.
I'm quite content knowing that I don't know you-I can pretend.
Let's keep it that way.You could never understand how much you mean to me.
I don't want you going and screwing it up with your personality.
I'll stay in this dark corner of my room where I can't be seen, but I can still see you.Right now you're a stranger-let's keep it that way.
No harm meant.
Let's keep it that way.
I'm quite content knowing that I don't know you-I can pretend.
Let's keep it that way.You could be anyone.
My fantasy would be undone.
I want to continue looking up to you.
Yeah!Let's keep it that way.
No harm meant.
Let's keep it that way.
I'm quite content knowing that I don't know you-I can pretend.
Let's keep it that way.
