Sweet Dreams

Holly Miranda

And thank you for
The sweet wishes for dreams
Even though
They grow further betweenYeah, it seems these days
I'm just trying to stay on my feet
I walk through crowds
So I never hear one heart beatAnd I found my goddess
She was staring at me from the sky
With the sun
In her eyes and cloudsAnd they say
You would never let me go
Never let me go, never let meI hope you find one that's so sweet
Hold on tight to what you see
And they say, they say
Sharks patrol these waters
But if you
