Some People

Paul Young

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Some people, they know how to play the game of love
Some people, know just who to pray to up above
Hey, I know where I'm going, I'm taking it straight to the top
I know where I'm going, I don't see a reason to stopYou took my hand, put me back where I started
Showed me the way, showed me the way
Oh, take my hand
You took my hand, put me back where I started
Givin' me directionSome people seem to get the best of life really easy
And some people seem to be put on this earth to please me
I know that I'm lucky what you give me I'll send right back
Hey, I know I'm so lucky and this won't be a tough one to crackYou took my hand, put me back where I started
Showed me the way, showed me the way
Oh, you took my hand
You took my hand, put me back where I started
(This is where I started)
Givin' me directionSome of us were living in perplexion
While others seemed to go sailing through
Some of us were getting no direction
Some of us could only think of youOh
Play
OhSome people can give every piece of their heart to another
Some people are just as happy when they're left on their own
I know what I have now the grass isn't greener over there
I know what I have now and it's something that I want to shareYou took my hand, put me back where I started
Oh yea, help me
Showed me the way, showed me the way
Oh, you took my handYou took my hand, put me back where I started
Givin' me direction
Showed me the way, showed me the way
There's a little piece of pepperYou took my hand, put me back where I started
(Where I started)
Givin' me direction
