

No Good Very Bad Day

Tsunami Bomb

Why is it me? This not my day
I burnt myself with coffee and my brand new doggie ran away.
How can it be? I can't not believe
I don't have any money and I have to pay the bills today.
I wish that I could run away
Myself esteem is low. At losing I'm a pro
But there is one thing that I know
It'd all be good if I could just stay home
What should I do?
He told me "I Hate You!"
I don't know where to live next year and my guitar won't stay in tune
Where should I go? I am so all alone
I broke my new computer and nobody calls me on the phone
I wish I weren't so accident prone
